

PROGIS was awarded by EU-Joint Research Center (JRC) to execute a study on “Analysis of the new whole-farm information and management needs resulting from renewable energy sustainability criteria”. We did this work in cooperation with partners of the Netherlands, Romania and Slovakia. The report is still confidential, but JRC envisages to make it public soon. For information you may contact Mr. Paolo Pizziol of JRC (pls. ask us for his contact details – strobl@progis.com)
